

VA TO STAY--IF CONDITIONS ARE MET

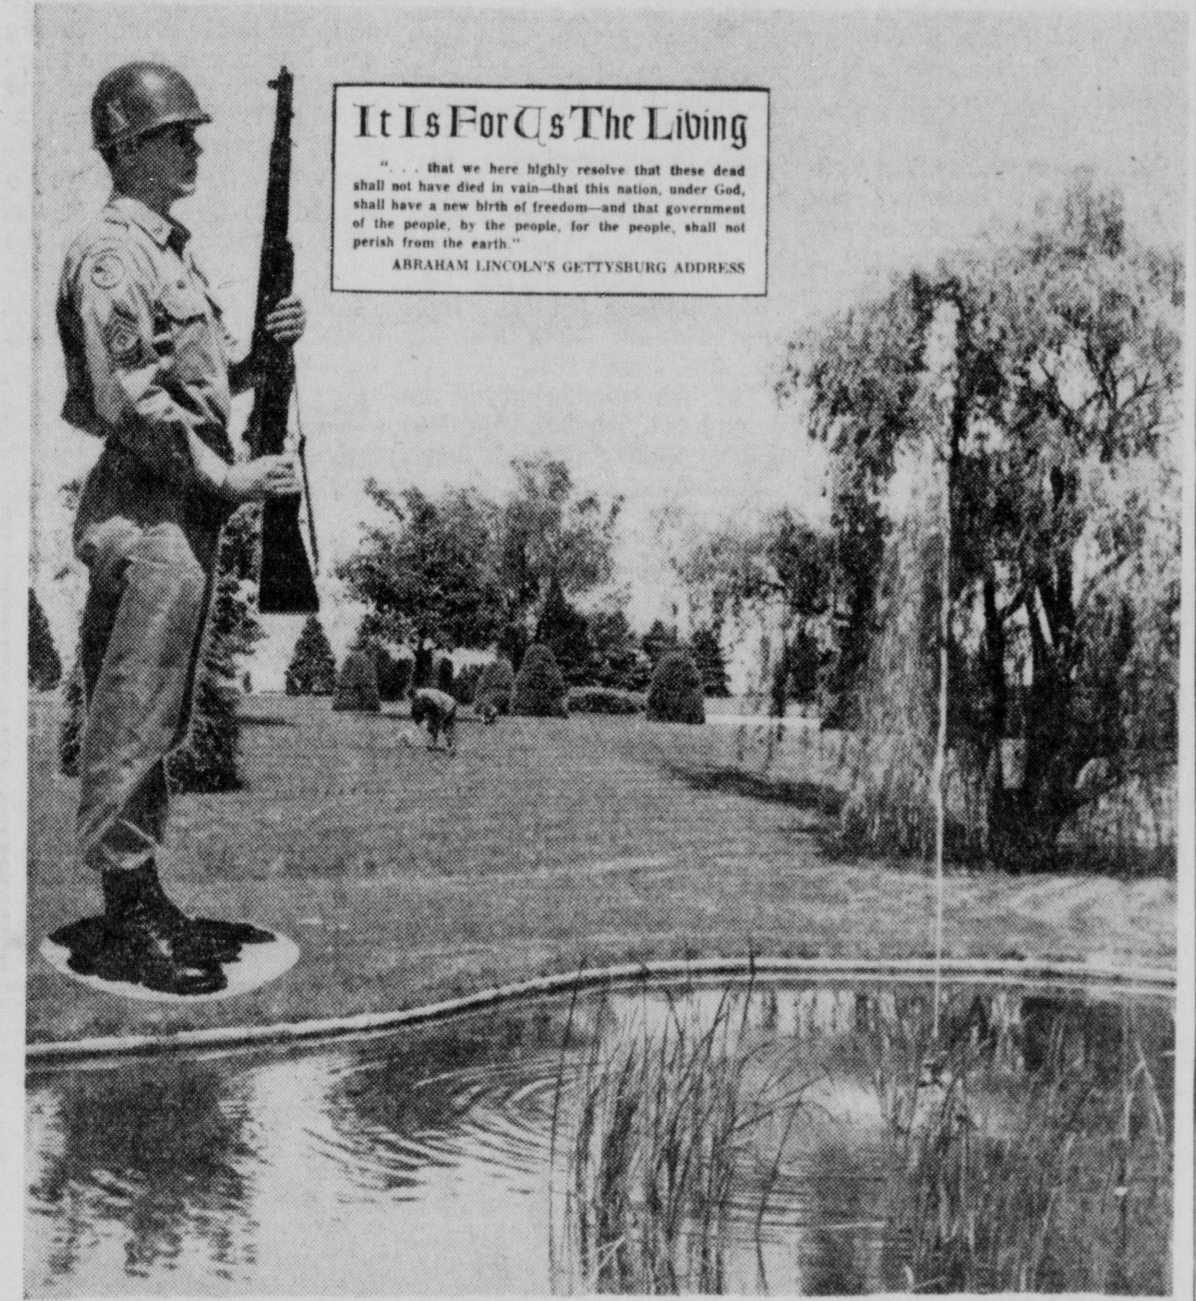

By Betty Person
The Veterans Administration's regional offices probably will remain in Lincoln if certain conditions can be met, VA Administrator Sumner Whittier announced from Washington Thursday night.
Rep. Phil Weaver said Whittier delivered to him, and Sens. Roman Hruska and Carl Curtis, a notice which indicated that if the conditions were met the office would stay.
"Time is short but... there is no doubt in my mind that we can do the job" of keeping the office in Lincoln, Weaver said.
He said "continued cooperation by the directors of the Lincoln Veterans Building Corp., the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, Veterans groups in Nebraska, other interested civic groups, and the members of our Congressional delegation" would still be required.

Lincoln Chamber of Commerce President Harold F. Hoppe and Mayor Bennett S. Martin, president of the Veterans Building Corporation, in a joint statement Thursday night said the "challenge will be met and overcome," adding, "as far as we're concerned, the VA regional office will remain in Lincoln."
Whittier told Weaver that at the "present time" he has no choice but to stand by the original decision to move the VA offices to Omaha, but said he was "not going to close the door finally at this time."
He stated, "If space can be found in Lincoln that is equal to the space being provided in Omaha and all of the conditions of efficiency, safety and veterans' service can be met at savings as great as that which can be realized by the move, then I will be very glad to ask Mr. Floete (GSA administrator) to see if it is possible to find some tenant for the new Omaha building."
Hoppe and Martin said, in their joint statement:
"We feel administrator Whittier has indicated a willingness to stay in Lincoln if the office facilities can be made comparable to those in the new Omaha building."
"This is a challenge which will be studied at once by the Veterans Building Corporation and the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. We feel it can be met and overcome."
"We do not agree with the reference to cost savings in Omaha as compared with Lincoln. Actually we believe the reverse is true. We will get the figures to Mr. Whittier to support this statement as soon as possible."
"As far as we're concerned, the VA regional office will remain in Lincoln."
In his letter to Weaver, Whittier said the move to Omaha would result in annual savings of $22,000 per year for the first 25 years occupancy of the new building in Omaha, and $48,000 annually thereafter.
"During the 25-year rental period, the estimated dollars saved," he continued, "would amount to more than half a million and eventual government ownership would multiply the rate of savings."

THE LINCOLN STAR

FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR No. 207 LINCOLN, NEB., FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 30, 1958 SEVEN CENTS

It Is For Us The Living
... that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."
ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

Salute To Those Who Fought . . . And Died
A reverent tribute to Nebraska's war dead—the men who died in foxholes and in hospitals during the 4 wars since Nebraska became a state—was repeated in 100s of communities throughout the state on Memorial Day at sites similar to Veterans Section at Lincoln Memorial Park, shown above. Nebraska's war casualties in the 4 wars have totaled almost 4,000 including 120 in the Spanish American War, 1,751 in World War I, 3,839 in World War II, and 225 in the Korean War. (Star Photo.)

Petitions Assure Vehicle Tax Vote

... 4,417 Propose Ordinance Repeal
By Virgil Fallon
The initiative issue for a vote on Lincoln's city vehicle tax was assured for the November ballot with the election commissioner's report Friday that the petitions contained 4,417 qualified voters.
This was 1,800 more than the required 2,580 qualified voters under city charter provisions.
The initiative petitions propose an ordinance for repeal of the street improvement levy passed in April by the City Council.
Ruled 'Correct'
City Atty. Ralph Nelson has already ruled that the petitions are "correct as to form" and that the Council is "legally authorized" to put the issue to a vote.
Election Commissioner Harold Gillett's report shows a total of 5,115 signatures on 154 petition sheets.
His check of the signatures showed 4,417 to be qualified voters. Another 85 may be qualified, but because of signature and address variations or deficiencies, could not be identified, he said.
576 Disqualified
His report disqualified 576 signatures as "not registered, married woman signing husband's given name, or not residing at registered address." Thirty-seven signatures were "duplicates."
City Hall officials noted the "approximately 85% of qualified signatures was probably the highest ever encountered on a petition of this type."
While most expected that sufficient signatures would be found, the number brought surprise.
The referendum drive probably influenced the success of the initiative move.
Signers Careful
Circulators reported signers were "more careful in signing." The election office also said a special phone needed to reply to the number of inquiries on voter registrations during the height of the drive.
Considerable controversy had been stirred when the Council declared the referendum petitions to be "insufficient" following a determination of signature withdrawals and other petition defects.
However, it is anticipated by most observers that the Council will submit the initiative proposal to a vote based on the city attorney's opinion in the matter and the election commissioner's report.
The other alternative, under charter provisions, would be for the Council to enact the repealing ordinance.

Temperatures will be up to standard for the holiday with highs again expected to be up to 95. Thursday highs ranged up to 90 at Norfolk and 89 at Chadron and Scottsbluff. Lincoln recorded an 84-degree high.

GEN. DE GAULLE GIVEN MANDATE

Demos Baffled By Ike

Reshuffle Plans Stand Despite Criticism
Washington (UPI) — Two key members of the House Armed Services Committee served notice Thursday the group will not change the defense reorganization bill attacked by President Eisenhower.
The position taken by Reps. Paul J. Kilday (D-Tex.) and Melvin Price (D-Ill.) means that the issue will have to be fought out on the House floor.
The congressmen said that the chief executive voiced satisfaction with the bill less than 2 weeks ago and they were unable to understand what they considered his about face.
Kilday and Price said there was no point in the committee taking another look at the bill because it already had considered the points raised by the President.
Mr. Eisenhower said late Wednesday that the committee bill would foster rather than halt disunity and waste in the armed forces. He said it would encourage insubordination and impose a bottleneck on the authority of the Defense Secretary.

A. CLIFFORD ANDERSON AGAIN HEADS DEMOS

By Don Walton
Lincoln real estate man A. Clifford Anderson was re-elected Democratic county chairman at a harmonious Lancaster County convention Thursday night.
The longtime party worker, a delegate to Democratic national conventions in 1948, 1952 and 1956, received a unanimous vote of confidence from some 130 responsive delegates.
He was first elected to the post in 1956.
Other officers:
Frank Golden, re-elected vice chairman.
Mrs. Virginia Hall, elected vice chairwoman succeeding Mrs. Evelyn Corp who declined consideration for re-nomination.
L. W. Bartzat, re-elected treasurer.
Robert C. Newell, elected secretary to succeed Ernest Frisch, who stepped down to "let a younger man take over."
Hard-Hitting Platform
The convention also adopted a hard-hitting platform and named 38 delegates and 38 alternates to the Democratic state convention to be held in Omaha June 21.
Unanimously marked nearly all action from the moment the convention approved the choice of John R. Doyle as presiding chairman.
Only floor discussion involved a plank in the adopted platform favoring placing of a candidate's age on the primary and general election ballots.
It was obviously aimed at Democratic senatorial candidate Frank B. Morrison of Lincoln teed off on his Republican opponent, incumbent Sen. Roman Hruska of Omaha, Thursday night at the Democratic county convention here.
Lashing back at Hruska's address here Thursday morning before Lancaster County Republicans, the 52-year-old attorney blasted the senator's criticism of New Deal policies, his references to former President Truman and a statement that the Democrats have no issues this year.
"I promise before he's through this campaign," the greying Morrison shouted, his huge frame leaning forward over the rostrum, "he's not going to be running against Harry Truman; he's going to be running against Frank Morrison and a reborn Democratic Party."
"Sabotaged Some"
"He hasn't dared introduce a bill to repeal a single one of those (New Deal) measures," Morrison told applauding delegates. "But they have sabotaged some of them," he whispered.
"If I can get this fellow on a platform to defend his record and ask why he voted against Nebraska on issues, anybody who would return him and his colleagues to Washington deserves the kind of legislation they're gonna get," he declared.
"Hruska has no solutions," Morrison said. Noting that the senator had termed the agricultural problem an economic one before county Republicans, Morrison pounded the platform and told his eager audience, "We can ill afford this kind of pompous pretension."
Note Left
The note, twisted to shreds by the mother in anxiety, said in effect that he would keep the baby unless Diana would come back to him, she said.
Mrs. Reineke said she was planning to divorce her husband, but that papers had not yet been filed.
Mrs. Reineke said she "would be willing to drop any charges against Larry if he would only bring Roxanne back."

FULL POWER DEMANDED

PRESIDENT COTY WARNS OF CIVIL WAR DANGER
Paris (P)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle agreed Thursday night to form a new French government, but insisted he must have full powers to head off civil war.
President Coty gave him the task with the grave warning to Parliament and all Frenchmen that their choice was narrowed down now to these alternatives:
De Gaulle or civil war.
The National Assembly majority would have to do a revolutionary reversal to accept De Gaulle.
The towering general's Rightist ideas and any spectre of authoritarian government are distasteful to the big blocs in Parliament, especially the key Socialists.
In The Constitution
De Gaulle's Paris office said in a communique the powers he seeks are provided for in the Constitution.
It went on quoting him as saying:
"I do not know how to undertake the task of conducting (the business of) the state and the nation unless these indispensable conditions are given me with frank and broad confidence required for the health of France, of the state and of the republic."
The full powers he seeks would approach those of a dictatorship. He wants them to run for a period to be set by the National Assembly.
The general did not specify in accepting President Coty's offer of the premiership how long he hoped to run the country single-handed.
Wants Adjournment
But he previously had made known through his followers that he wants the National Assembly, habitually divided and split wide open now over the general's ascendancy, to adjourn for a full year.
It was in an atmosphere heavy with strife that Coty warned Parliament and the nation that only de Gaulle could save France from civil war now.
The outcome still depends on the whims of the National Assembly, where feeling against de Gaulle runs high in Leftist and Center parties.
Socialists Adjourn
The Socialist party caucused again late Thursday night and adjourned until Friday. The Socialists said they would not reach a full decision until Saturday. This could prolong the crisis over the weekend.
Thousands of de Gaulle backers staged a quick demonstration in the streets.
"De Gaulle, de Gaulle," the demonstrators shouted. "Algeria is French."
In the face of de Gaulle's report to Coty, opposition to him appeared weakened in the Assembly.
SCHOOL BIDS TOP ESTIMATE
Low bid on the Gen. Arnold School was $80,000 above estimates and action has been held up. Page 5.

Father Is Sought After Baby Taken From Home

... Assault, Non-Support Charged
The father of a 7-month-old baby girl, snatched almost from its mother's arms, was being sought by law enforcement authorities Thursday night on charges of assault and nonsupport.
Larry Reineke, 26, was charged with assaulting and injuring his wife in a complaint signed by Chief Dep. Co. Atty. Dale Fahnenbruch and with failure to support wife and child in a complaint signed by his wife, Mrs. Diana Hann Reineke.
Mrs. Reineke was Miss Nebraska of 1953 and is the daughter of Mrs. Harriet Hann and Herbert Hann, former state Penitentiary warden.
Nebraska Safety Patrol officials said Reineke is believed traveling with the child in a 1947 black Ford convertible, Neb. 5-5459.
Came To Apartment
Mrs. Reineke told authorities that her estranged husband came to the apartment, where she is living with her mother, grabbed the child, threw a note at her, and fled.
She said she tried to stop him but was unable to.
The Reinekes have been living apart since March 1957, when Diana came to Lincoln to live with her mother and her husband went to Nicaragua. The baby was born in October.
He returned from Nicaragua.

Aid Cut Attempts Delayed

Demo Asks End To 'Handouts'
Washington (P)—Enactment of President Eisenhower's foreign aid program as written was urged by a Republican senator Thursday while a Democrat called for an end to "global handouts."
The senators, H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) and Olin D. Johnston (D-SC), spoke in the second day of free-wheeling Senate debate on legislation authorizing a $3,712,000,000 foreign aid program for the 12 months starting July 1.
Efforts to cut the controversial measure were put off until next week.
Smith urged the Senate not to put a financial straitjacket on the President at a time of Communist-inspired anti-American outbursts around the world. He cited anti-American demonstrations in South America, Lebanon and Algeria.
'Tough Going'
Declaring "we can expect lots of tough going in the future," Smith said this country will not react to the Soviet challenge by retreating or cutting foreign aid.
"I cannot be party to any tampering with the security of the nation," he said.
Johnston called for a half in the foreign aid program. He said that on balance it has "created mischief and mistrust in the world, produced a reliance upon 'purchased' friends . . . (and) caused us to be scorned as suckers."
Referring to the recent mob demonstrations against Vice President Richard Nixon in South America, Johnston said "our globalists have been so busy shoveling out aid to Europe and Asia that we seriously neglected our American neighbors to the south."

GM, Union Refuse To Budge As Deadline Reached

WORKERS WON'T GO ON STRIKE

Detroit (AP) — General Motors' contract with the United Auto Workers expired at midnight as the company rejected a last-ditch effort by the UAW to solve the dispute.

The UAW, after being turned down in the last hour of negotiations in a request for a brief extension of the current contract pending further negotiations, made its last futile move in the final 5 minutes before the 3-year pact ran out.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, proposed that differences between GM and the UAW be submitted to a secret ballot of GM workers on whether they preferred the new contract proposals made by the union or 2-year extensions of the old contract offered by GM.

Reuther told GM, "we propose that the present contract be extended for a period of 30 days during which there will be moratorium for collective bargaining on a new contract."

Majority

Reuther's surprise move proposed that if a majority of workers favored the union proposal the corporation would be obliged to bargain with the UAW for 30 days. Any issues unresolved then would be submitted to arbitration.

Louis G. Seaton, GM vice president, said "we regret it has been impossible to reach an agreement with the UAW. We are ready to meet with the union at any time but nothing can be accomplished on the 'give-and-take' basis suggested by Mr. Reuther."

"Our plants will be open to operate as usual during this 'no contract' period."

Seaton's statement followed a 15-minute recess called by GM to consider Reuther's last-minute offer.

No New Boss

Seaton said, "the UAW's proposal presents no new basis for settlement and the contract is terminated."

He said negotiators will meet again Monday to renew efforts to hammer out an agreement.

Failure to agree on a new contract meant that 300,000 UAW members at GM would work without a contract for the first time since they won recognition in 1937.

The UAW and GM both have instructed their people how to operate in such a case and how to avoid incidents that would disrupt ordinary works.

Elgin Doors Swing Shut As Originally Planned

The wheels of industry at the Lincoln Elgin plant ground to a virtual halt Thursday as the plant closed down operations as originally scheduled.

Only 140 employees will remain until late production orders have been filled, according to R. H. Brandes, plant manager. They will be released after orders have been filled and certain plant maintenance assignments are finished.

Elgin employed more than 800 persons with an annual payroll of $4 million before the shutdown was revealed last January.

NU Gets Building

The 6-story building at 900 No. 16th will be turned over to the University of Nebraska Aug. 1 for $725,000, to be used for additional laboratory and classroom space for an expected increase in University enrollment.

'Slow Down, Live' Program Begins Today

Col. C. J. Sanders of the Nebraska Safety Patrol noted that Memorial Day marks the beginning of the "Slow Down and Live" campaign, and he urged all motorists to bear that thought in mind as they join the heavy volume of traffic expected to crowd the highways this weekend.

"Memorial Day has been set aside as a time to pay particular homage to those who have died in the service of our country to preserve our independence and our American way of life. It is right and proper that we exercise this moral responsibility; but since traffic accidents in our country have claimed more lives than all the wars of our history, it is also right and proper that we accept the moral responsibility for safety in traffic and display our interest in accident prevention by legal and attentive behavior whenever we drive," he said.

In 1957 there were no traffic fatalities in Nebraska over Memorial Day weekend.

Nebraska's 1958 traffic death toll is keeping pace with the 1957 total of 97 fatalities on May 29. However, May totals dropped to 20 at the same date in 1957.

On the national scene, the death toll dropped in April for the 6th straight month; and highway deaths in the first 4 months of this year were the lowest for the comparable period since 1950, according to the Associated Press.

10 Suspended After Panty Raid

Athens, Ga. (UPI) — The University of Georgia has suspended 10 students, 5 of whom were also under arrest, as the ringleaders in a riotous panty raid which police broke up with tear gas.

A spokesman said the university expects to spend several days in singling out for suspension other ringleaders or students who threw rocks at police and cars during the melee.

Five students were arrested. Three forfeited $17 fines and one a $27 fine by failing to appear in court.

9.5 Billion Refinance Plan Set

Washington (AP)—The government Thursday announced plans to refinance 9½ billion dollars of the national debt and added a surprise — the sale of one-billion dollars in long term bonds.

There had been advance speculation that the Treasury might offer a long term bond as part of the refinancing operation. However there had been little or no talk of borrowing new cash through sale of a "long one."

The effect of the sale will be to add a billion dollars to the national debt, now about 275 billions. In addition to offering the long term issue, the Treasury will offer 2 other securities in exchange for notes and bonds which will mature June 15. Holders of the expiring securities can accept the new models or take cash.

The long bond will run 26 years and 11 months, maturing May 15, 1985. It will carry an interest rate of 3¼%. However, each $100 of the bonds will be sold for $100.50, which will reduce the effective yield to 3.22%.

Starkweather Attorneys File Appeal

Attorneys for Charles Starkweather, convicted last Friday of the murder of Robert Jensen of Bennet, Thursday afternoon filed a motion in Lancaster District Court requesting the 19-year-old youth be granted a new trial.

The motion by T. Clement Gaughan and William F. Matschullat is a routine part of the necessary appeal of Starkweather's case to the State Supreme Court, which is mandatory under state law because the jury fixed Starkweather's penalty at death.

Gaughan and Matschullat listed 17 reasons why they believe Judge Harry A. Spencer should grant the new trial request. Most are routine, such as allegations that the jury's verdict was not supported by the evidence.

'Misconduct' Charged

The court-appointed defense attorneys also allege in the motion that the jury, prosecuting attorney and witnesses for the state were guilty of "misconduct," but do not elaborate further. They also allege the jury's verdict was the result of "passion and prejudice," and that the 12 jurors had fixed opinions on Starkweather's guilt before hearing the evidence.

Gaughan and Matschullat also allege that Judge Spencer should not have allowed several exhibits into evidence. One, a photo showing the body of the 17-year-old Jensen lying beneath that of his nearly-nude girl friend, Carol King (also killed in Starkweather's murder spree in January which claimed 10 lives), was "inflammatory" and did not bear on the Jensen case, the attorneys allege.

Judge Spencer will rule on the motion June 7, and is expected to deny it. If he does he will then formally sentence Starkweather to death in the electric chair and set a date for the execution.

An interested spectator was Democratic nominee for railway commissioner J. C. McReynolds, 83, seeking the post for the seventh time.

'Competition'

The platform called for party "competition" in Nebraska, cited "the lack of leadership and inertia which has characterized the administration of the State of Nebraska and Lancaster County," and dedicated the party to "effecting a change and furnishing that competition which will produce a government product of the highest quality and caliber in this November election year."

On the county level, the platform asked the voters to "retire the elderly pensioners."

On the sheriff's office, in an obvious reference to the Starkweather case, the platform said: "Never again must Lancaster County be forced to submit to a reign of terror" and called for "cool, prompt, effective protection, not officially inspired panic with irresponsible armed mobs."

The platform also said the county clerk's office "requires methods and efficiency unknown in 1925. . . . We must have an experienced, efficient, modern administrator," that the county board needs "dignity and honesty. . . restored," and that the county surveyor should use "modern methods. . . without ruining crops and lawns."

Would Increase Board

Increasing the number of members of the county board, elimination of duplication of county and city functions, and fewer and more economically organized high schools also got convention backing. Delegates and alternates to the state convention:

OIL FIRMS INDICTED

Alexandria, Va. (AP)—Twenty-nine oil companies, including many of the nation's largest, Thursday were accused by a federal grand jury of conspiring to fix the price of crude oil and auto gasoline.

The grand jury which returned the indictment before U. S. District Judge Albert V. Bryan has been hearing evidence since March, 1957.

Denials of wrongdoing came swiftly from a number of the defendants. The Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), one of the first to comment, categorically denied that the company or any of its affiliates has violated the antitrust laws.

Flat Denial

W. F. Kennedy, vice president and general counsel of Shell Oil Co., also denying the conspiracy charge, said government lawyers and economists "seem so obsessed with cleaning up non-existent conspiracies that they cannot understand the normal processes of a competitive market."

Similar denials came from the Texas Co., the Gulf Oil Corp., the Cities Service Co., The Standard Oil Co. (Indiana), Humble Oil & Refining Co., and others.

The indictment charged the defendants, beginning in 1956 and continuing through January, 1957, "engaged in an unlawful combination and conspiracy to raise, fix, and stabilize prices of crude oil throughout the affected market."

The affected market was described as all of the country except the 5 Western states of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Arizona.

Boy Drowns In Stock Tank

Meadow Grove, Neb. (AP) — Roger Bernhardt, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bernhardt, Meadow Grove farmers, drowned Thursday in about 10 inches of water in a stock tank located only 100 feet from the farm house.

His body was discovered in the tank by the father returning to the house from planting corn. The boy had been playing with his 3 brothers and the mother was inside preparing the meal.

Battle Creek firemen worked for an hour in the futile attempt to revive the boy.

County Attorney Vincent Kirby said there will be no inquest.

Sec. McElroy Denies U.S. Is Considering Moving Paris NATO Facilities

Friday, May 30, 1958 The Lincoln Star

... Watching Crisis 'With Interest'

Washington (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy denied Thursday reports that the United States is considering moving NATO defense facilities from Paris because of the danger of civil strife in France.

In answer to a news conference question, McElroy said that "nothing of that sort is under consideration."

Earlier in the day a State Department spokesman had reported that he could find nothing to support reports that some NATO equipment was being shifted from Paris.

McElroy said "we are watching developments in France with great interest." But he added the present situation does not seem to require the use of any "alternatives" in the American setup in France.

A newsman, recalling that President Eisenhower told his White House news conference that he liked Gen. de Gaulle, posed the same question to McElroy—did he like de Gaulle.

"I don't know Gen. de Gaulle," McElroy replied. "I'm not as privileged as the President."

Junta Warns

Algiers (AP)—Algeria's ruling junta warned that it will take vigorous action to prevent anyone from blocking Gen. Charles de Gaulle's rise to Premier in Paris.

A member of the junta was more specific. He said the Army is ready to move if necessary to help bring de Gaulle to power.

Cross Charges

United Nations, N.Y. (AP)—Tunisia and France filed charges against each other before the U.N. Security Council as a result of recent clashes in Tunisia.

The Tunisians asked for a council meeting to deal with their charges that French military forces stationed on Tunisian territory were guilty of acts of armed aggression.

France then requested that the council at the same meeting take up what it called a Tunisian breach of their agreement on stationing French troops in Tunisia.

Reject Seen

Washington (UPI) — Diplomatic sources said the U.S. and Britain will reject Tunisia's urgent request for arms that might be used against French troops.

They said any weapons shipments now probably would only stir up further unrest in North Africa. Rebel French leaders in Algeria have assured the United States they have only peaceful intentions toward Tunisia.

'More Harm'

Moscow (AP) — President Klement Voroshilov told newsmen at a Finnish embassy reception "we have reasons to think that de Gaulle's return at this time may do more harm than good."

Premier Nikita Khrushchev avoided discussion of the French crisis.

Mrs. Hazel Abel Gets GOP Convention Post

Mrs. Hazel Abel of Lincoln, president of the Nebraska Federation of Republican Women and former U.S. senator, has been named to the resolutions committee for the 10th biennial convention of the National Federation of Republican Women.

The convention will be held in Boston Sept. 24-26.

Hruska Says Demos Have 'No Issues'

Democrats have found "no demonstrable issues that can be exploited" in the coming elections this year, Sen. Roman L. Hruska told Lancaster County Republicans at their post-primary convention Thursday.

Nebraska's senior senator, seeking re-election in November, keynoted the convention by asking Republicans and their candidates to "talk words with a meaning for tomorrow" and not to campaign on political expedience.

"There is nothing so devastating as facts," Hruska declared, adding, "and that's what we're going to have to put across to the people."

Democrats have tried to seize on Sputnik as an issue, he said, but charged the Republican record in the field of missile development "which has seen 99% of the total funds spent on missile development expended since 1953," has made this issue "fall flat on the ground and flapped itself back in the faces of the opposition."

Dulles Vindicated

Charging that Democrats also have attempted to make an issue of Eisenhower's and Dulles' "go-slow" attitude on a summit conference, Hruska said, "Dulles' position on the conference was fully vindicated at the recent NATO conference."

On the farm issue, Sen. Hruska said the "responsibilities for any deficiencies or inadequacies which may exist in the farm program should be placed squarely where they belong."

"Benson and Eisenhower don't make laws," he continued, "Congress does," adding again that for 4 years "New Deal Democrats have controlled Congress and farm issues voted upon are the ones they permitted to appear there."

Sen. Hruska vowed, "we can meet them blow for blow when the time comes," and expressed conviction that Republicans will be returned to office in Nebraska and in its congressional representation.

Brehm Is New Chairman Of Lancaster County GOP

By Betty Person

Exuding confidence born of many years at the helm, but ever-mindful that elections are won or lost at the precinct level, Lancaster County Republicans met Thursday for their post-primary convention and named outgoing Lancaster County Commissioner Russell Brehm as their chairman for 1958.

A total of 99 of the county's 139 elected delegates met to take care of official party business and name delegates to the state convention and congressional district conventions which will be held Sept. 15 at Alliance. A total of 135 attended the county meeting.

In electing top officers for the coming year, the GOP delegates switched 2 of their 1957 officers when Brehm was elected chairman and James Ackerman was named secretary.

Ackerman had announced previously that he would not be a candidate for re-election as chairman, and Grant Reed's nomination for Ackerman as secretary agreeably surprised many of the delegates.

Don Dixon was named treasurer to succeed Carl Berg, who had announced he would not be a candidate for re-election after serving for 12 years. All officers were elected without opposition.

Brehm, acknowledged winner of the chairmanship before the delegates convened, told Lancaster County GOP stalwarts he was confident Nebraska's congressional delegation, state and county officers would be elected again in November.

He noted that the Democrats have fielded a full slate of candidates for Lancaster county offices in 1958 "for the first time in years," but said he was "confident the County Court House will remain in the Republican ticket."

Gov. Victor Anderson told the delegates they represented the backbone of the GOP and said the Republican candidates "can't win without you."

"You will be the foundation of our success," he continued, "or you will be the foundation of our failure if we don't have your help."

Pointing to the "scandal-free" administrations Nebraskans have had in state government for many years under Republicans, Gov. Anderson said it was the "state-house team" that makes it "good or bad."

He commended the "very, very strong department head organization we have in state government who give maximum service to the people of our state."

The governor also declared he was "proud of holding the line on the cost of state government," and noted that Nebraska was one of the few states in the nation with a reduction in state taxes last year.

Delegates named to the state and congressional district conventions, named by legislative districts, were:

18th Legislative District:
Delegates: Mary Dana, James Ackerman, Dwin L. Jones, F. B. Coutsworth, Lawrence H. Daff, Jack Schuetz, Don Dixon, Ruby Bayes, Jerome Warner, Alice Critchfield, Anna J. Allan, Don P. Harrington and Mrs. Charles J. Warner.

Plain Facts Would Do

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

If Abraham Lincoln could visit today the city in Nebraska which bears his name, he would have a hard time finding the "government of the people, by the people, for the people" of which he spoke at Gettysburg Nov. 19, 1863. We have come a long way since that day of eloquence and Mr. Lincoln would find a great deal to give him pride today, but his hair would stand on end at some of the things he would see.

In far too many respects, he would find a government of officials, by officials and for officials. Such government has always been opposed and fought by this newspaper and the current activities of the City Council and City Planning Commission in regard to Lincoln's interstate spur are no exception. Once again, city officials have taken it upon themselves to decide in this matter what is good for the people of Lincoln to know and what the people of Lincoln are capable and incapable of understanding.

Despite past defeats of their efforts because of this very thing, the city persists in following a pattern which leads to confusion, misunderstanding and destruction of confidence. That is exactly what is now happening on the interstate spur situation and the city, unfortunately, will wake up some morning and find it has embittered a great many people against its plans.

Whether these plans are good or bad will make no difference as the prejudices will already have been established and the facts will not change them. Already, the city has defeated itself on a number of important projects with this kind of senseless approach and has gone to the brink of defeat on its wheel tax for much the same thing.

Harland Bartholomew & Associates of St. Louis, Mo., was hired to prepare for Lincoln a study and plan for Lincoln's interstate spur. This was done at a cost of a little more than $7,000 and the Bartholomew report and recommendations are now in the hands of a host of officials of the city.

But while the taxpayers are approved as a means of paying for this report, they are not given credit for having enough intelligence to comprehend the report. They are not given any insight into the report or access to the facts for which they paid. The people's right to know the contents of this report was abolished with the Planning Commission stand that the document was "off the record"—a secret report.

In this matter, Mayor Bennett Martin refused when requested to intervene for the protection of the rights involved. He had access to the report himself but refused to release it for public discussion.

However, contents of the report were obtained and published due to the initiative of the Star City Hall reporter, Virgil Falloon. Certain aspects of the report, its recommended spur plan, had leaked out in other ways.

It was known that the recommended interstate link would generally follow 7th through the central part of Lincoln. What then, does this mean? It means that the entire wholesale and industrial area on the west edge of the city is involved, including the Burlington Railroad yards and passenger depot.

What, then, happens when this scant bit of information becomes available? The owners of these business establishments immediately become concerned since their holdings and their operations are to be vitally affected. Also concerned are the employees of all these firms, the businessmen who depend on these employees for sales and virtually every individual in Lincoln in one way or another.

Thus, speculation begins to mount and fantasy takes the place of fact. A million different stories about where the exact route is, who it will affect, what it will cost, etc., are circulated. Naturally, the wildest and most damaging claims receive the greatest attention and notoriety. By the time the city decides it is time to tell the people the facts, the facts don't mean a thing. All of this could be avoided by the city merely presenting the report to the public, along with explanations by officials on important details, the exact status of plans, etc.

The city, however, has not yet recognized these facts and still persists in withholding information which it has no right to withhold. The issue here is fundamental, not because of any desire of news media to get a story, but because the public has a right to know what its government is doing and cannot arrive at just and fair conclusions if this right is denied. The attitude of Commission Chairman E. J. Faulkner and Mayor Martin is a direct insult to the intelligence and pride of the people of Lincoln. Through their own blindness, they are tearing to pieces the very public service they are seeking to perform.

De Gaulle Might Play Russia Against U.S.

WASHINGTON — From information this reporter obtained while in Paris and since then by trans-Atlantic telephone, it appears that the United States has two serious problems to worry about in strife-torn France. They are:

1. De Gaulle will probably lean toward Russia, may become the "Nasser of the West" and play the United States off against the Soviet.
  2. If De Gaulle is not tough enough or anti-American enough, he may be replaced by the group of military men who are the real power in France and who are using him as a front.
- The chief thing to remember about France today is that the French army is determined to stage a comeback. It is determined to wipe out the shame of its past defeats. This is especially true of Gen. Jacques Massu, the tough paratrooper who is the real power behind De Gaulle and the man who may well take his place should the generals find De Gaulle too weak.

Massu is the man who commanded French paratroopers during the landing at Suez. His men were on the verge of a great victory which would have retrieved the sting of losing Indochina, Morocco, Syria, and Lebanon, and defeat at the hands of the Nazis in 1940. Then suddenly President Eisenhower stepped in and stopped the French army on the verge of its comeback. This is something General Massu has not forgotten and will not forget. He is not anti-American, but neither is he pro-American. He is definitely anti-Eisenhower.

Other French army leaders in many cases are anti-American. You have to remember that the United States clashed seriously with French forces during the landing in North Africa. One unit of the French foreign legion was caught in a ravine near Oran and completely wiped out by American forces. Again, the French wiped out around 900 American troops aboard two ships when they tried to land at Oran.

The troops were aboard two British vessels, though flying the American flag in the belief that the French would not fire on Americans. An American landing force of about 1,000 were below decks, the hatches fastened. The ships broke through the boom guarding the harbor of Oran. Then French shore batteries opened fire. The ships sank. Most of the American troops were drowned.

These are some of the unhappy incidents that come back to plague American-French relations with the French army and its wartime leader in power. Copyright, 1958, By Bell Syndicate Inc.

Like Ike Fine But Not His Leadership

WASHINGTON — Senator William Proxmire of Wisconsin feels that in recent fence-mending he picked up the best clue as to how Democrats should handle President Eisenhower in the campaign about to begin.

Proxmire is in a hard fight for a full term after brief service here. He was elected last August to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Joseph R. McCarthy. Visiting among the farmers who unkindly for him seem somewhat less dissatisfied than they were last summer, he ran across one who promised support. But the same farmer said he was still friendly to the President.

"I voted for him in 1952 and 1956," the farmer said. "I guess I'd vote for him again if he could run in 1960. He's a fine man and a good man but, my God, isn't he a lousy president?"

The Proxmire conclusion is that the Democrats should treat the President personally with reserve but can safely take off the gloves with respect to the conduct of the presidency, the Eisenhower policies, the White House staff and the cabinet.

Also spreading rapidly across the country is former Secretary of State Dean Acheson's thrust at General Alfred M. Gruenther, Eisenhower intimate and president of the American Red Cross.

"You ought to go over to the State Department and take care of things there," Acheson told Gruenther. The general instantly remonstrated that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was doing a fine job and that Acheson, of all men, should appreciate the difficulties at state.

"Oh, I didn't mean you should replace Dulles," Acheson explained. "But isn't the Red Cross supposed to rush into disaster areas?"

Such jests receive wide circulation and, like taxi drivers, are a generally accepted barometer of the public mood. They gain circulation with incredible rapidity; they did so, indeed, even before mass communications were so vastly improved.

It was a farmer in Massachusetts who said to Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in the spring of 1946 that the then President Truman was "acting like a cow on glare ice." Truman lost control of Congress that fall but in the months following regained a sure footing and went on to his memorable triumph over Thomas E. Dewey and all the alleged prophets.

It may be that the President and Secretary Dulles can likewise reverse the trend which seems daily more pronounced against them. The headlines do not so indicate. Nor is the President making any real effort at greater rapport with the politicians of his own party.

This situation is aggravated by the fact that House Republicans believe their veteran leader, Representative Joe Martin of Massachusetts, is losing his steam while GOP senators note that their minority chief, Senator William F. Knowland, is often preoccupied with his campaign for governor of California.

Pity The Poor Teacher Who Is A Parent

Harold Spence of the Holdrege Citizen reminds his fellow hat-wearers that the time of year is at hand to start digging in the clothes closet to see if last year's straw has winter-killed or not. The odds are good, he says, that "it will resemble a discarded waffle," and a new one will be in short order.

Sewer Service

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Too few citizens understand and appreciate (1) that a new regime in the history and administration of sewer service and sewage disposal in Lincoln began with this current fiscal year last September, or (2) the weighty reasons for adopting the sewer service fee in the place of the property tax levy as a source of necessary revenue.

Since about 1920, control of this vital public service had been divided between the city and the sanitary district, with some consequent duplication and loss of efficiency and economy. All costs were met by tax levies on property regardless of the amount, if any, of service received. Moreover, all tax-exempt institutions such as the Post Office, State Capitol, University, Penitentiary, mental hospital, County Court House and jail, Union College, Wesleyan University, public and parochial schools, all churches and parsonages, the YWCA and YMCA, the various lodges, and others not listed were receiving sewer service absolutely free.

Two acts were secured from the 1957 Legislature that opened the way for the new sewer service regime that was marked by three notable developments. First, taking advantage of one of the acts, the city acquired from the sanitary district the ownership and sole control of all its sanitary sewers and the sewage disposal plant.

Second, as authorized by the other act, the city provided for the issue of $2.5 million of revenue bonds for the construction of trunk sanitary sewers made necessary by the recent unprecedented growth of the city. Third, the property tax levies by the city and district for sewer service and sewage disposal were dropped and the sewer fee set up to replace them and to service the revenue bonds that must be paid off out of fee receipts. There are three compelling reasons for this action: (1) The sewer fee rather than a general property tax levy is the more approved, up-to-date, and fair method of payment. Only the properties served are required to pay, and only for the amount of service received. (2) The city could not issue the revenue bonds for sewer construction unless it adopted the sewer fee to service them. (3) Only by resorting to the sewer fee could the many tax-free institutions in Lincoln be required to pay for the $55,000 or more of sewer service they had been getting free of charge yearly at the expense of city taxpayers.

This new regime in sanitary sewer administration is a notable achievement and step in advance, for which the city government deserves high praise.

Widow Pensions

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: One of the most outstanding events affecting widows in every state in the Union has been somewhat neglected by the national press associations. It is the climax of a six-year struggle in Congress to increase the government pension paid widows of the Spanish-American War. H. R. 358 signed last week by President Eisenhower was a much amended bill which had passed the House unanimously on May 6, 1957, granting only Spanish-American widows a flat $75 monthly pension. This amended H. R. 358 included not only Spanish-American widows, but widows of the Indian Wars, Mexican War, Civil War, and the widows of Confederate veterans and the two surviving Confederate veterans, now 112 and 114 years old, respectively. This is the progress story of the legislation. Rep. O'Hara, a veteran, introduced H. R. 358 which was passed without a dissenting vote. This bill was referred to the Senate Finance Committee of which Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) was chairman. The first session of the 85th Congress closed without any Senate action.

In the second session of the 85th Congress in March, Sen. Byrd's committee reported out an amended bill as follows: (1) to include not only S-A widows but widows of Civil, Indian, and Mexican Wars; (2) to allow $75 monthly to all widows who married the veteran prior to or during the war and $65 to all widows married after the war. However, when the bill was considered on the Senate floor, Sen. R. B. Land (D-La) moved to include all widows of the Confederate veterans. It was adopted.

When the amended bill came before the Conference Committee, the House members proposed to include the two surviving Confederate soldiers. The conference report was adopted by both houses and sent to the President who signed the bill to become effective July 1, 1958.

The widows affected by this bill number as follows: 84,300 Spanish-American War widows married after the war; 4,000 S-A widows married prior to or during the war; 4,000 widows of Union veterans; 1,000 widows of Indian War and 7 Mexican War widows; 1,000 widows of Confederate veterans—making a total of 90,307 widows affected by H. R. 358.

The final aim of the Spanish-American War to wipe out sectional difference has at last been recognized.

Upholding Facts

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I admire the Starkweather family for not saying that Charles Starkweather was insane. It is my feeling that the crimes were premeditated. Capital punishment is a state law; let us abide by it or move to a state that does not have it.

Oh, for more people to uphold the bare facts, such as J. Edgar Hoover did a few days ago. We all know there is an element at work constantly to dispute the FBI.

Arnold School Bids Top Estimate $80,000

$856,000 Cook Figure Is Lowest

By Nancy Benjamin

Eight bids for construction of the Gen. Arnold School at the Lincoln Air Force Base all ranged higher than the federal allocation of funds for the school's construction.

At Thursday's bid opening, George Cook Construction Co. of Lincoln was the apparent low bidder with a $856,000 offer for the general contract, more than $80,000 above the federal estimate of $770,000.

Schools Superintendent Steven N. Watkins announced that "an attempt will be made to get a reconsideration of the amount of federal funds" for the kindergarten through 6th grade school.

The U.S. Office of Education of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare recently assured the Lincoln Public Schools officials that their full request for $845,000—including the cost of furnishings—would be allotted for the Gen. Arnold structure. The amount allocated for construction by both architects and federal officials was approximately $770,000.

No official action was taken on the bids Thursday and final decision will probably not take place until more federal funds have been requested and approved.

Other bidders on the construction contract, and their bids, are:

Kingery Construction Co., Lincoln, $855,000.
Westcott-Bowen Construction Co., Lincoln, $885,112.
J. H. Frith Co. of Dallas, Tex., $883,300.
Olson Construction Co., Lincoln, $887,650.
Asenmacher Construction Co., Lincoln, $921,650.
M. W. Anderson Construction Co., Lincoln, $922,742.
P. M. Anderson Construction Co. of Tecumseh, $1,130,000.

The proposed school building, designed by the Lincoln architectural firm of Clark & Enersen, consists of a main rectangular building housing 2 kindergarten rooms, offices, and a general purpose room for lunch, activities and library facilities.

Two wings of the main building consist of 6 separate units, each housing 4 classrooms.

Climax Of 80 MPH Chase

Police are still looking for the driver of this car which was chased up to speeds of 80 miles per hour before it crashed into a pickup truck and rocketed into a fence in front of 5930 Normal. Though the car was demolished the driver climbed out of the wreckage and eluded police. (Star Staff Photo)

Police Seek Lincoln Youth Injured In 80 MPH Chase

Police were still searching for a 23-year-old Lincoln man they believe was driving a car which smashed into a parked pickup truck near 60th and Normal early Thursday morning after being chased at speeds of more than 80 mph by 2 police cruisers.

Police believe the driver, who has a long traffic record, may have been seriously injured in the crash. He has not been home or at work since the crash, which occurred about 1:35 a.m.

2 Cruiser Chase

Police began chasing the car at 16th and F when they saw the driver accelerate at high speed when they approached. A cruiser chased the car out Capitol Parkway, where a second cruiser joined the chase.

The car turned onto Normal and reportedly violated the stop sign at Normal and South at more than 80 mph. The officers momentarily lost the car at 56th and Normal, and when they drove up to 60th and Normal they found the car had smashed into a truck belonging to a policeman, Richard Stansbury of 5930 Normal, and that the driver had fled on foot.

Knocked 96 Feet

The truck, police said, was knocked 96 feet by the impact into a fence on the yard of John Faulk at 2371 So. 60th.

Blood spots were found in the car. About 15 policemen searched the surrounding fields without success for the driver. Police said they believe the youth was driving on a suspended driver's license. If his license is suspended, he could be charged with the felony of fleeing from lawmen while having a suspended license.

2 Big Projects Boost Building Permit Total

Two major projects have skyrocketed Lincoln's building permits to $3,000,799 for May, bringing the building record to $5,404,284 so far this year and $500,000 ahead of a year ago.

One is the $1,602,000 addition to the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co. building at 1440 M. Five stories are being added to the new building and a 4-story addition, 61 by 142 feet, will adjoin on the east.

The other is the construction of the new Hovland-Swanson store at 1220-30 O, adjoining the present location.

Estimated cost was $566,403.

The May record also shows the start of 42 new residences totalling $495,809. Two new church structures are Our Saviour Lutheran at 1200 So. 40th, $60,000, and Christian Science Church, 6201 O, $20,000.

The comparable building records:

	1958	1957
January	$ 315,218	$ 207,776
February	$ 271,711	$ 520,805
March	$ 880,181	$ 875,519
April	$1,008,373	$1,301,124
May	$3,000,799	$1,688,450
Totals	$5,404,284	$4,894,104

The 1957 building total was $1,919,260. The highest month was May.

Lincoln 'Urgently Requests' Direct Flights To Topeka

Direct air service from Lincoln to Topeka, Kan., has been urgently requested of the Civil Aeronautics Board by the City of Lincoln and the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

They desire inclusion of the Kansas capital in one of the 5 additional new proposed airline routes outlined Wednesday by the State Aeronautics Commission.

The 5 new services are separate from the 7-state case under which 17 Nebraska cities will be on air carrier routes.

The 5 routes are a portion of a proposed Kansas-Oklahoma area study by the CAB.

Disappointment Noted

Exhibits mailed Thursday to the CAB expressed disappointment in the Board's exclusion of Lincoln-Topeka service in the recommendations following the 7-state investigation.

Pointing out the fact that Lincolnites already have much difficulty flying to Topeka (it must be done through Kansas City), the exhibits note that greater inconvenience will result when the 7-state order becomes effective because more stops will be necessary between Lincoln and Kansas City.

Lincolnites cannot fly directly into Kansas, the petition points out, the only bordering state in which this is the case.

It recommends an air route between Omaha and Wichita, Kan., via Lincoln, Beatrice and Topeka. Secondary points on the route would be Manhattan, Salina and Hutchinson, Kan., the petition requests.

A suggested "route segment" would connect Fairbury with Beatrice and Manhattan.

From Wichita, Lincolnites could easily connect with Oklahoma City and other points south.

'Community Of Interest' "A great community of interest with Topeka" in particular is pointed to by the exhibits, including both being state capitals.

Other points: common university interest between Lincoln, Manhattan and Lawrence (near Topeka); federal office connections; agricultural, industrial, medical and military ties.

Heavy attendance figures at the Nebraska State Fair, University of Nebraska sports events and Lincoln-Topeka Western League baseball association are also noted.

No Trains

Lincoln has no direct train connections with Topeka, Manhattan, Salina, Hutchinson or Wichita, the report said. Bus schedules take over 8 hours to Wichita and 4 hours, 40 min., to Topeka, exhibits point out.

The report was signed by Charles T. Stuart, chairman of the Chamber aviation committee.

Attorney Is Charged In 'Violations'

... Of Law Canons

The Nebraska State Bar Assn. said with the State Supreme Court a complaint against Bertrand V. Tibbels, Scottsbluff attorney.

The complaint charged Tibbels with having been "guilty of unprofessional conduct and of violating the canons of the Nebraska State Bar Assn."

Specifically, the complaint said Tibbels failed to file with the United States government for the years 1952, 1953 and 1954 any report or return relating to his income for those years.

Failed To File

On Jan. 17, 1957, the complaint said, Tibbels was charged in U. S. District Court at Omaha with willfully failing to file income tax returns for 1953 and 1954 in 2 counts; that one count involved the year 1953 to which he pleaded nolo contendere, and count 2 involved the year 1954 to which he pleaded not guilty. Count 2 was dismissed, the complaint said.

Upon hearing, the complaint continued, Tibbels was found guilty as to count one and was sentenced to pay $500 and costs. He also was placed on probation for 14 months on condition he pay the U. S. government $2,292.41 in taxes and penalties due, the complaint said.

George Turner, State Supreme court clerk, said the penalty "is absolutely within the discretion of the court—it can suspend him, disbar him, or reprimand him."

The Town Is Brimming With Activity

Plan June Wedding

—a most interesting week end is upon us—There are guests in town at the moment, and an exceedingly notable one coming, who are in no way involved in Memorial Day activities—

Incidentally, or perhaps we should say coincidentally; the guests we have in mind are all from abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Davey and their sons, Allen, Larry, Jimmy and Philip, have just returned from Southampton, England, where Mr. Davey served as a vice-consul with the United States Department of State.

Mr. and Mrs. Davey (he is a graduate of the University of Nebraska) and their family are visiting friends in Lincoln, and from here will go to Madison, Wis., where Mr. Davey will take graduate work in economics. He also, as a member of the consular service staff, will assist in the training of those who plan to go into the consular service.

—our notable is Dr. George Dommessi of Pretoria, South Africa, who will be arriving late on Saturday to remain until Wednesday as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. M. Thomson.

Dr. Dommessi, who came to the States to attend the Congress of English Speaking Orthopedic Associations, recently held in Washington, now is on a tour of the country, visiting the outstanding orthopedic clinics.

—somehow the mention of guests always brings home-comers to mind—and this morning we learned that Mrs. Walter W. White had returned to Lincoln from California. Mrs. White went first to Salinas to greet her new grandson, Joseph Charles Grainger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Grainger (Sally White). From Salinas Mrs. White went down the coast to Santa Barbara where she visited her two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Burton Whitmore and Mrs. Jesse Whitmore—and from Santa Barbara to Los Angeles for a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Webb.

—the calendar for the days ahead includes a variety of activity and most of it pertains to those who come—and those who go.

We heard, for instance, that Matt Herold of Scarsdale, N.Y., would be arriving on Saturday, June 7, for a visit with old friends, and to attend some commencement festivities.

Mr. Herold, who will be the week end house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Ferguson, will be complimented on Sunday, June 8, when Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson entertain a group of his friends at luncheon at the Lincoln Country Club.

—then we learned that on Saturday, June 7, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lawlor, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Andros, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hamann and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinsey will be hosts and hostesses when they entertain at an hors d'oeuvres and supper party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andros, in farewell courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Burkett Van Kirk who, with their family, soon will be moving to Washington, D.C.

—the approaching week is not without its highlights—On Sunday June bride-elect Miss Carolyn Adams, and her fiancé, Jack Holmquist, will be complimented when Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Minier and Mrs. L. E. Minier are hosts and hostesses at a brunch at Hotel Cornhusker. At the close of the party the bride-elect and Mr. Holmquist will be presented with a host and hostess gift.

—a Monday party, also honoring Miss Carter, is the luncheon for which Mrs. Charles Swingle will be hostess at her home, and on Tuesday a bridge eight some of which the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Earl Carter, is a member, will entertain at the home of Mrs. Barney Schrepf. The party will be a luncheon after which Miss Carter will be presented with a picnic accessories shower.

—but back to Monday morning and a neighborhood coffee for which Mrs. James Evinger will be hostess. The party is a farewell courtesy to Mrs. Dale Tinstman who, with Mr. Tinstman and their family, will be leaving Lincoln soon to reside in Omaha.

—and we have another party to add to those already on the week end agenda—It is a 10:30 o'clock coffee on Saturday morning for which Mrs. Mary Dana will be hostess at her home when she entertains in courtesy to her daughter, Mrs. John W. Sinclair of Claremont, Calif. Twelve guests have been invited.

Had Chapel Service

MR. AND MRS. RONALD MCINTIRE

The marriage of Miss Sherill Lynn Lydick, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Lydick and of A. W. Lydick of Santa Maria, Calif., to Ronald McIntire, son of Mrs. Zelma McIntire of Des Moines, and of A. L. McIntire of Sacramento, Calif., was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, May 18, in the Lincoln Air Force Base chapel. The lines of the 3 o'clock service were read by Chaplain A. E. K. Brenner in the presence of members of the family and a small group of friends.

The maid of honor and her twin sister's only attendant was Miss Sharon Lydick who was frocked in pastel green taffeta. Fashioned with a fitted basque and full, ballerina skirt, her costume was completed by a picture hat of matching green tulle. She carried yellow daisies.

Larry Baker served Mr. McIntire as best man.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white silk taffeta trimmed with hand-clipped Chantilly lace. The V neckline of the long-sleeved bodice was bordered by a band of lace traced with tiny pearls, and the lace motif was repeated on the flaring, waltz-length skirt. Her shoulder veil of illusion was held by a jeweled bandeau, and she carried a cascade of white carnations and valley-lilies centered with a yellow cymbidium orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Creighton.

The couple will reside at 3810 L, in Lincoln where the bridegroom is stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

MISS SHARON LYDICK AND FIANCE

Announcement is made this morning by Mrs. Thelma Lydick of Lincoln, and A. W. Lydick of Santa Maria, Calif., of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sharon, to Larry Baker, son of Mr. dan Mrs. A. W. Baker.

A late June wedding is planned by the couple.

BRIDES BOOK

Miss Carolyn Adams this morning is announcing that her marriage to James R. Seaberg will be an event of June 7. Her wedding plans reveal that Miss Paula Adams will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmatron will be Mrs. Gary Zoerb of Calloway. Miss Ann Lundquist of Omaha and Miss Karen Johnson of Lindsborg, Kan., will be the bridesmaids.

Robert Michael Seaberg will serve as best man, and seating the guests will be Gary Timmons of Enid, Okla., Bradley Warner and Leroy McCoy.

A June bride-elect, Miss Virginia Kean, was honored recently at a dessert supper given by Mrs. Vernon Hermann. The 14 guests, office coworkers of the honoree, were invited to the Hermann home for the informal affair, and during the evening a miscellaneous shower was presented to the bride-to-be.

Revealing plans for her wedding this morning is Miss Barbara Jones of Beatrice, a University of Nebraska coed and former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Willard sorority. Miss Jones has chosen Saturday, June 14, for her marriage to William C. Marten, Beta Theta Pi at the University of Nebraska.

Mrs. Everett Knoche of Albert Lea, Minn., will be her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Musser of Rising City; Miss Mary Lou LeGris, Chicago; Miss Marilyn Baker, Beatrice; and Miss Oliva Carino of the Philippine Islands.

Miss Kathy Babcock of Lincoln will be the flower girl and the ringbearer will be the bride-elect's nephew, Gene Knoche of Albert Lea. Lighting the candles will be John Fiala of St. Louis and Jerry Marples, Wymore.

Serving as best man will be Don Phillips of Burwell, and the corps of ushers will include Miss Jones brother, John Jones, and Kent Paul, both of Beatrice, Don Smidt of Crete, and Bob Smidt of Firth.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

SOUTH HILLS

We're going to begin with a bit of news concerning the younger set this morning—the little Miss we have in mind is Kathleen Conrod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enery Conrod, who celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary on Sunday, May 25, and in honor of the occasion her mother was hostess at an afternoon party on Saturday.

We understand that Kathleen's sister and brother, Jamee Ann and Kim, were among those on hand for the party and the other guests included Cindy Murphy, Judy Sindelar, Maureen Coffey, Colleen Malone, Susan Marty, Mary Jo Wood, Diane Engler, Marie Hartz, Janet Peterson, Sherry York, Christine Arrigo, Linda McCabe, Holly Ann Beadell, Ann Tripe, Jeanette Hagerly and Barbara Rice.

And mention of the Conrods reminds us that it will be in a couple weeks when Mrs. Conrod and her three children will be making an excursion to Denver, Colo. The foursome will be guests at the home of Mrs. Conrod's brother-in-law and twin sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brim and their three children, Michael, Therese and Debra.

Travelers during the Memorial Day weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Weishahn and their children, Donna and Douglas, who left this morning for Yankton, S. D. The Weishahn family will visit Mrs. Weishahn's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice White and other friends, and on Sunday will be present for the marriage of Miss Patty Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bender of Yankton, formerly of Weeping Water, Neb.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. Weishahn was a coffee hostess at her home, and invited for the informal affair were Mrs. Charles Kilborn, Mrs. Maurice Halstad and her sons, Danny and Scott, Mrs. Harold Robertson and Sue, and Mrs. James Cook and her sons, Mark and Paul.

Understand that Capt. and Mrs. Merlin Rice and their children, Richard, James, Barbara and Thomas left Lincoln this morning for their new home in Atwater, Calif., and Capt. Rice's new duty station at Castle Air Force Base.

Honoring Mrs. Rice on Thursday were Mrs. Robert Gould and Mrs. Ronald Brumbaugh who entertained at a coffee held at the Gould home included among the 12 guests were wives of officers in the 98th Air Refueling Squadron, and during the morning affair a one gift shower was presented to Mrs. Rice.

We made mention last week of a farewell courtesy to Mrs. James Metz, and now for a few more details as to plans of the Metz family. M.Sgt. and Mrs. Metz and their son, Gary, make their new home in Glenview, Ill., where Sgt. Metz will be stationed at Glenview Naval Air Station with the Marine Corps detachment, and the family will leave Lincoln the middle of June.

Dear Abby . . .

Restrict 'Em!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am single and occupy my evenings "sitting" with children. I've been asked to sit with four and five children at one home. Some people have the nerve to "pool" their children with the neighbors and I sit with them all for a flat fee of a dollar an hour. I'm expected to give them supper, baths and put them to bed. It is five times as much work to take care of five children as it is for one, so I think I should be paid by the CHILD, not the hour. I'd like the opinion of others as well as your own on this subject, please.

UNDERPAID AND OVERWORKED

DEAR U. AND O.: "Sitters" generally work out an arrangement to suit the pocketbook of the family for whom she sits. She also has the privilege of stating her limitations insofar as duties and the number of children are concerned. If you feel overworked and underpaid, tell it to the lady of the house.

DEAR ABBY: I am fifty and my husband is 53 but he tells his girlfriend that he is 45. He doesn't take me any place because he is afraid his girlfriend will see him. He has told her that I am not his wife, but his mother's sister. If his girlfriend knew the truth she wouldn't look at him. Do you think I should tell her? UNHAPPY WIFE

DEAR UNHAPPY: It seems to me that if a girl is really interested in getting the facts about a man's marital status, it wouldn't be too difficult. Give your husband first chance to tell her. If he passes—it's up to you.

DEAR ABBY: I noticed a letter in your column from a father who complained because his wife slipped their teen-aged son extra money besides his allowance. He said the boy's allowance was "more than plenty." Please tell me how much, exactly, is "more than plenty?"

TEEN-AGED BOY

DEAR BOY: "Plenty" should cover all necessary expenses (lunches, transportation, school supplies) and "more than plenty" should cover entertainment and non-essentials. It is my opinion that boys who are old enough to "date" are old enough to earn the money with which to do it.

DEAR ABBY: When I started to work at this place, the Assistant Manager asked me out. I refused him because I was going steady. My boyfriend and I broke up about a week ago and I would like to let the Assistant Manager know that I would like to go out with him. How can I inform him without pushing myself?

NO PUSHER

DEAR NO: You need an "assistant," too. Enlist the help of a co-worker, and let her (or him) give him the news.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to comment on a letter signed "INHIBITED." Speaking from personal experience, Med students are the worst kind. Just because they know all about anatomy from textbooks and cadavers they think they are entitled to special privileges. I prefer Law students. They have more respect for girls.

BETTY CO-ED

CONFIDENTIAL TO R. R.: Cameras don't lie but they sometimes exaggerate a little. Better see the girl in person first.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Was Thursday Bride

Yellow and white spring blossoms formed the background for the wedding of Miss Nancy Esther Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett R. Johnson, and Donald Lee Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Webster, which took place at a 7:30 o'clock ceremony at the Vine Congregational Church on Thursday evening May 29. The Rev. Verne A. Spindell read the lines of the service, and Mrs. P. C.

Swift, organist, played the wedding music. David E. Kahn was the vocal soloist.

The two attendants, Mrs. James H. Miller, the matron of honor, and maid of honor Miss Janet Webster, wore alike frocks of white organza over yellow taffeta. A soft drape of chiffon contoured the shoulder-wide necklines and chiffon back panels extended from the necklines to the hems of the bouffant, waltz-length skirts. Each wore a hair bandeau of yellow taffeta, and each carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations. Victoria Louise Kahn was the flower girl.

Bart Wilson served Mr. Webster as best man, and seating the guests were Lowell Johnson, Charles Fletcher and Gordon Gerner.

The bride appeared in a gown of white net and Chantilly lace over taffeta. Lace fashioned the short-sleeved bodice, designed with a portrait neckline, and was to band the bouffant, floor-length skirt. Her illusion veil was held to the head with a double lace bandeau, and she carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Webster and his bride, following the reception in the church parlors, left for a honeymoon trip to the Black Hills. Upon their return they will reside at 1515 D St.

Party Honors June Bride-Elect

Complimenting Miss Roberta Ford, whose marriage to Frank A. Swinson will take place on Saturday, June 21, Mrs. Anthony Michalecke and Mrs. Richard Faling were hostesses at a shower on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Michalecke. In the picture, from left to right, are Mrs. Robert Ford, Mrs. Bryan Smith, Mrs. James Novotne, Miss Ford—the honoree—Mrs. Ruth Flackman, Mrs. Faling and Mrs. Victor Dormer.

Attending the party, but not in the picture, were Mrs. Stanley Reid, Mrs. Louis Moser, Mrs. Herschal Luft, Mrs. Manuel Snyder, Miss Edith

Davis, Mrs. Herschal Luft, Jr., and Miss Frances Platz.

Insured Jobless Is Down 82,000

... Fifth Straight Weekly Decline

Washington (AP) — The government reported that unemployment among workers insured for jobless benefits dropped by 82,000 during the week of May 17 to 3,019,500.

This was the fifth straight weekly decline in insured unemployment from a high of 3,363,300 during the week ended April 12.

Over the 5-week period insured unemployment dropped by 10% and the rate of unemployment among insured workers from 8.1 to 7.2%.

The improvement must be tempered, officials said, by the fact that more than 900,000 workers normally insured for jobless benefits have exhausted their rights to further payments and are not counted among the insured unemployed. Some of these workers, however, have undoubtedly found other jobs, they added.

A year ago insured unemployment totaled 1,364,200, or 3.4% of insured workers. The 5-week period during which insured unemployment has declined by 10% this year compares with an 8% decline during the comparable 5-week period last year.

The Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security said 44 states reported declines in insured unemployment for the week ending May 17, the largest being Michigan, 12,800, and Pennsylvania, 7,500.

The bureau said the decline in recent weeks reflected seasonal improvement principally in construction and other outdoor work as well as a continuing high rate of claimant exhaustion of benefit rights.

The bureau reported the volume of initial claims filed by newly laid off workers declined by 34,700 to 324,500 during the week ended May 24, with 39 states reporting reductions.

This was the lowest level of initial claims reported since the week ended Nov. 16, 1957.

Most of the declines in initial claims were small, the most sizeable being Michigan, 4,500, Ohio, 4,300, and Indiana 3,600.

Wichman said collections on the old three cent collection basis, totaled $328,929.

BAERING DOWN ON THE NEWS

Arthur 'Bugs' Boer Southern women started Decoration Day almost a century ago. At Fredericksburg they put flowers on the fields of the unremembered dead.

There were 1,383 killed on both sides. And 17,000 wounded. It was not until 1908 that Gen. Jack Logan picked up the custom and fixed the date forever.

The battle was fought in December. Which gave 5 months for the caps to fade and the flowers to grow.

BRYAN LIKED IN SPEEDWAY

...33 Drivers, Countless Fans Set For '500' Classic Today

Indianapolis (AP)—Jimmy Bryan, a throttle-tromping deadeye from Arizona, seems the driver of destiny in what may be the fastest "500" ever over the Indianapolis Motor Speedway's famed "brickyard" today.

The usual "countless" 150,000 witnesses will be on hand, in both a picnic and Roman Circus mood as death lurks around every turn.

When the 33 fastest drivers in speedway history respond to track president Tony Hulman's command (at 9:52 a.m., CST) "gentlemen, start your engines," Bryan will be purring in the third row.

But this 31-year-old racer from Phoenix, making his seventh Memorial Day race start, is driving the horizontal-engined Belond Special which won the 500 last year for Sam Hanks. Bryan finished third last year.

In this roaring, dizzy 200-lap test around the 2½-mile brick and asphalt track, Bryan must overhaul some pretty good drivers and some pretty snappy cars. Fair and warm weather is predicted.

In pole position as the 11 rows of 3 cars per row make the heart-stopping roar into the first turn is Miami's Dick Rathmann in a McNamara Special which set a qualifying record of 145.974 M.P.H.

Completing the first row are Ed Elisian, Oakland, Calif., who set a one-lap mark of 146.508, and Jimmy Reece, Indianapolis, both driving Zink Specials.

The second row includes the only former champion entered, Johnnie Parsons of Van Nuys, Calif., winner of the 1950 rain-shortened race, driving a flat-engine Gerhardt.

Bryan certainly has the know-how to master the "brickyard" and the field which includes eight rookies.

Winner of the Triple A and USAC big car titles three of the past four years, Bryan won the first 500-mile race at Monza, Italy, last year. The cigar-chomping Bryan races with a case of spare stogies attached to his cockpit.

Last year's 500 winner, 43-year-old Hanks will be on the sidelines watching, as director of racing for the speedway, for the likely shattering of the race record of 135.601 M.P.H. he set last Memorial Day.

The contingent of daredevil newcomers is headed by the race's youngest driver, A. J. Boyt, 23, of Tucson, Ariz.

his 12th qualifying spot was the highest for a rookie. Boyt is driving a rebuilt Dean Special, driven to victory at Monza by Bryan.

In the fifth row will be the "grand daddy" of the 500, Paul Russo, oldest man in the field at 44 and making his 12th start. Twice a runnerup, Russo undoubtedly will be the crowd's sentimental favorite as he pilots his Novi Special. In last year's race, Russo led for 24 laps, winding up fourth.

Driving skill is one thing, but durability of the little mechanized thoroughbreds which snarl through lap after lap is another. Last year, only 17 of the 33 starters finished.

Another prime factor in the mad chase to nowhere is the swiftness and astute timing of pit stops. Jim Rathmann, brother of pole driver Dick, has had the best time of 23 seconds for refueling and changing four tires during the tuneups. When Jim Rathmann, driving in the seventh row this year, finished second to Hanks last year, all of his pit stops were under 35 seconds.

Last speedway fatality, 47th since the track opened in 1909, was in the 1957 practice session when Keith Andrews was killed in crashing the retaining wall.

Floyd Nixes Offer Of $250,000

Houston, Tex. (AP)—The President of Texas Boxing Enterprises, Inc., said Thursday the manager of world heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson has turned down a $250,000 offer for a title fight here this summer with Roy Harris.

Meyer (Rex) Braun said he received a telegram this morning from Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager.

"There's nothing we can do now," Braun said. He added, however, that negotiations have not been terminated.

"We made the man an offer and he turned it down," Braun said. "It's as simple as that. There is nothing else we can do."

Patterson is scheduled to start intensive training Monday for a title defense, the nature of which has not been announced.

Harris, the Cut and Shoot, Tex., School teacher who was discharged from the Army May 15, is ranked No. 5 among heavyweight contenders. He has an undefeated record in 21 professional fights.

In New York, D'Amato refused to comment on the report from Braun.

"The only thing I can say is no comment," D'Amato said. "I am working on several different matches and I wouldn't want to deny or confirm any of them at this time."

"I am lining up opponents now. As I have said before, Patterson will have at least two and probably three fights this year. I think my action last year indicated that I would have no hesitation in letting Patterson fight twice in a month."

D'Amato said the decision of Patterson to move his training camp starting Monday was made because the former camp area was getting too crowded now that the summer vacation season has started.

POINT BLANK

By Don Bryant
Sports Editor, The Star

With the Western League season a little more than a month old, it's time to check up on attendance figures.

The dope sheet is running true to form in most respects.

There have been numerous (and costly) postponements and, as usual, the eastern teams have born the brunt of the early season cold weather.

The Western just doesn't pack 'em in during April, but the clubs have to start early because the major league clubs have to have a place for their players.

Albuquerque and Amarillo—the spots which usually have the best early weather—are the early season pacesetters at the gate. Albuquerque, which drew 21,408 in 18 tries through May 27, had only 1 postponement, while Amarillo (14,656 in 16 starts) and 2.

Lincoln, the No. 3 draw with 13,503 in 16 games, was the only team which didn't have a home postponement.

These three teams are carrying the highest home averages, too.

There's no crying from these points. The Chiefs, which drew just over 100,000 last season, are ahead of the 1957 pace even though the fans haven't started swarming to Sherman Field yet.

Biggest disappointment in the first month was Des Moines—the league's oldest member and largest city—which drew only 5,426 (542 average) in 10 dates. The Demons had 4 washouts which hurt the cause, but the main reason for Des Moines' poor showing was its seventh-place team.

Topeka, which had a miserable team to open the year, is far behind last year's pace, averaging only 603 in 14 dates. But the Hawks have spiked up their forces and the presence of such Topeka heroes as Al Weygandt and Daryl Robertson no doubt will prove a box office tonic.

In the rain-out department, Pueblo was hardest hit, losing 5 dates. Both Des Moines and Colorado Springs had 4 postponements.

Sioux City, which has been rained out 6 times on the road, is the home-road leader with 8 postponements. Des Moines and Amarillo registered a total of 6 each.

Four clubs—Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Sioux City and Des Moines—have posted the bulk of their attendance on the road.

Judging from the first month, the Western gate future looks promising. Several clubs are ahead of last year already and it looks like the WL will have a fine race again this season.

Given any kind of break from the weatherman, and a hot pennant battle, the Western should have a good year.

Bauta's Relief Job Earns Series Split

By Don Bryant

The Lincoln Chiefs Thursday night warmed up for their big Memorial Day day-night doubleheader by whacking the Colorado Springs Sky Sox, 5-3, at Sherman Field.

In drawing an even split with the tough Sky Sox in the 4-game series, the Chiefs maintained their game and a half margin over second-place Sioux City.

Ray Mueller's Pueblo Bruins move into Sherman Field Friday to participate in the holiday festivities. It will be the Bruins' first appearance of the year here. They're currently in third place, 5 games back of the Chiefs.

The first game will start at 2 p.m., and the nightcap will be launched at 8 p.m. Following the night contest, a gigantic fireworks display will be sent into orbit by general manager Dick Wagner.

Dave Wickersham (3-0) and Bennie Malcolm (1-0) will pitch the afternoon and night games, respectively, for the pace-setting Monty Basgalls. Lincoln had to break a 3-3 tie in the seventh and then fight off the Sky Sox in the ninth to post the Thursday night victory.

Easy Ed Bauta, who took over for Dick Payne in the seventh, gave the 773 fans a thrill in the ninth.

A walk and Paul Mohr's single got him in trouble but he got Ron Prohovich and Ken Yoke to look at called third strikes before talking Gene Martin to load the bases.

But the Chiefs' ace reliever—he's 3-0 and has saved 7 games—wound up proceedings by whipping a called third strike past Dave Jordan.

Payne pitched excellent ball during the first five innings of his initial Sherman Field start. He had a 2-hit shutout going until the sixth and his mates—thanks largely to Stan Malec's 2-run homer in the fourth—had provided him a 3-0 lead.

But Dick's lack of work since getting out of the Army had its effect in the sixth. Bobby Case's triple and Barney Elser's double plated 1 run and a walk and Mohr's triple tied it up, 3-3.

Lincoln got to Powell for the deciders in the seventh. He hit Malec to open the inning

Bold Ruler, Gallant Man To Duel For Prize In Carter Handicap

New York (AP)—One of the top horse races of the year is in prospect today at Belmont Park when Bold Ruler and Gallant Man, two old rivals, meet along with eight others in the $50,000-added Carter Handicap.

Bold Ruler, the 1957 Horse of the Year owned by the Wheatley Stable, faces a formidable task with a high weight of 135 pounds in the 7 furlongs sprint. Since the Carter was inaugurated in 1895, only one horse—Tom Fool in 1953—has won with 135 pounds.

This will be their first meeting since Bold Ruler beat Gallant Man, owned by Ralph Lowe, and the Kerr Stable's Round Table in the Trenton Handicap last November at Garden State.

Gallant Man carries 128 pounds, and is making his initial start of the season. Bold Ruler won the Toboggan handicap here May 17 with 133 pounds, in his 1958 racing debut. Both colts, now 4, were idle with injuries since last year.

The Carter, world's richest spring race, is noted for its upsets and there are plenty of lightweight horses capable of winning this Memorial Day headliner.

Among them is the Clearwater Stable's Portersville, who won last year with 111 pounds, beating the top-weighted Dedicate with 126. Portersville again carries 111.

Adele L. Rand's Clem and Edward Seinfeld's Admiral Vee, both with 116, can do the job. C. Mahlon Kline's Lofty Peak has 114; Joe W. Brown's Tenacious, and Howell E. Jackson's Tick Tock, 113; Jack Amiel's Mr. Turf, 111; and The Maine Chance Farm's Busher Fantasy, 107.

Robustelli Signs

New York (AP)—Andy Robustelli, outstanding defensive end of the New York Football Giants, has signed for his eighth National Football League season.

Clem was beaten only half a length by Bold Ruler in the 6 furlong Toboggan, and drops one pound. Tick Tock was a third, and drops from 116, while Lofty Peak, who was fifth, drops three pounds.

Eddie Arcaro rides Bold Ruler, and the Carter is one stakes the master has failed to win. Willie Shoemaker flew east from California to pilot Gallant Man.

Peterborough, Ont. (AP)—A minor league baseball game was postponed on account of elephants.

Players of the South End Jets and the South End Maple Leafs arrived at Peterborough Exhibition Grounds to find an elephant herd prowling the playing field.

Reason: A circus is performing nearby and the elephants are using the baseball field between shows.

New York Is Prepared To Build Park For NL

New York (AP)—Mayor Wagner said Thursday night that New York City was prepared to build a baseball park and lease it to a franchise owner on reasonable terms.

The mayor said however, there was no hope of any transfer of National League club to the city next year.

A special mayor's committee, named to bring a National League franchise to New York, met with Mayor Wagner and issued a progress report, in which it said the next step was up to baseball itself.

The committee reported that Robert Moses, city construction coordinator, had told its members that it would be possible to build a modern 52,000-seat stadium for approximately $12,000,000. It would be paid for by the sale of bonds which would be outside the city's legal debt limit.

The committee said it thought an annual $250,000 maximum rent "could" be worked out so that, after the bonds had been retired, the city would own the stadium.

Mayor Wagner said he was sending William Shea, committee chairman, to a National League meeting at the All-Star game in July at Baltimore to discuss the city's plans with the owners.

"I am hopeful that New York City will obtain a National League franchise," said the mayor. "And we will continue to do everything possible to get a team here as soon as possible."

The committee, named after the departure of the Giants and Dodgers for California left New York without a National League team, reported the apparent lack of interest in baseball in the city could be attributed to the fans' reaction to the movement of the Giants and Dodgers.

The report concluded:

"Unless baseball in general, and in particular the National League and its members, evidence an active interest by taking the necessary steps to have a National League team operate in the city of New York, the efforts and desires of yourself, the board of estimate, commissioner Moses and thousands of fans of the city of New York and your committee will be useless and futile."

"The city of New York is receptive and ready, so the next step is up to the National League and its members."

In addition to Shea, other committee members are Clinton W. Blume, James A. Farley and Bernard F. Gimbel.

PHILLIES' HAMNER LOST FOR SEASON

Philadelphia (AP)—Granny Hamner, 31, veteran infielder of the Philadelphia Phillies, probably will be out the rest of the season after an operation Thursday to repair a torn ligament in his left knee.

"Granny" will have to be laid up from 12 to 15 weeks," said Dr. Thomas F. McTeer, team physician, after the two-hour operation. Dr. Donald Twining Jones of Hahnemann Hospital performed the surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Hamner was injured in the second inning of Monday's game against the Los Angeles Dodgers in Connie Mack Stadium. He was blocked at second base by the sliding Charley Neal, Dodger infielder, while Hamner was trying to complete a double play. Hamner was playing second base.

The infielder completed the inning but was replaced by a pinch-hitter. He was hitting .301 and leading the team in runs batted in and doubles when he was injured. Hamner first played for Philadelphia in 1944 and became a regular in 1948.

He was operated on in 1955 for a painful left shoulder ailment.

The drivers also were reminded about the new starting system, with the cars lining up along the pits according to their starting order and then falling into 11 three-car rows for a parade lap and a pace lap behind a pace car driven by Sam Hanks, last year's winner.
Any driver who makes a flagrant try to improve his position before the start will be given the black flag and called in for a conference with officials while the rest continue, Fenger said.

Ruben Backs Down, Pays $100 Fine

St. Louis (AP) — San Francisco pitcher Ruben Gomez changed signals Thursday and forked over the $100 he was fined by National League president Warren Giles for swinging a bat Sunday in a free-for-all in Pittsburgh.
Gomez maintained earlier that he wouldn't pay the fine and said it was a crime that Giles decided to fine him.
At the same time Gomez' teammate, rookie Orlando Cepeda, paid his $100 fine. Cepeda hadn't protested his punishment.

Gomez, Cepeda and Pittsburgh manager Danny Murtagh were the leaders in the Sunday ruckus in the opinion of Giles.

It all started when Murtagh took issue with a warning to Pirate pitcher Vernon Law from umpire Frank Dascoli. The umpire chastened Law for throwing a "dustball" at the batter, Gomez.
Murtagh and Gomez soon were at it in a jawing contest that mushroomed into a free-for-all between both teams. Murtagh also came away with a $100 penalty.

REDLEGS GIVE FAMOUS BONUS

Collegeville, Pa. (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs have signed Bob Famos, 21-year-old infielder from Ursinus College, for a reported $25,000 bonus.

Famos disclosed he was assigned to the Class AA Nashville team which optioned him to the Class A Albuquerque, N.M. club. Famos, a stand-out in baseball and football at Ursinus, will report after graduation early next month.

32 Whiffs In 32 Games Worries Mick: 'Got To Lick The Thing Myself, Will'

New York (AP) — Mickey Mantle is worried about his mounting strikeout total after an inglorious swing around the west in the last two days at Kansas City where the New York Yankees dropped two to the A's. He now has 32 whiffs for the year in 32 games.
"I've got to lick the thing myself," said Mantle to Til Ferdenzi of the New York Journal-American. "I've got to fight my way out of it, and I will."
"My right shoulder is sore but that's not the reason I've been looking so bad. I'm not swinging the bat the way I should. I guess anybody can see that."

Mantle's teammate, Gil McDougald, agreed that Mickey was having a bad time. He says it is mostly mental.
"If he was hurt real bad, he couldn't bring that bat around the way he does," McDougald said. "One thing I do know, he's not whipping it through his natural way."
"That means he's thinking about his slump and no ball player in the world can afford to do that."
"I know it's hard not to think about it. It must be plain murder for a guy like Mickey. He's got such wonderful natural ability. But like I said, he's the fellow with the answer. He'll break out of it. You can bet on it."

Casey Stengel had this to say about Mantle:
"He's right if he says he's pulling his head off the ball. Sometimes he's looking way up there instead of down here."
Mantle is batting .289 with only four home runs and 14 runs batted in. He hit two homers on the 13-game road trip, one in Washington and the other in Chicago. In those 13 games he struck out 15 times.
A check of the records for 1957 shows that Mantle had fanned only 21 times at this stage. His total for the entire season was 75, a personal low since he became a regular.

Both Harry Craft, the Kansas City manager, and Tom Greenwade, the Yankee scout who discovered Mantle, told Ferdenzi they had noticed a difference in his swing.
"You can say that again," said Craft. "He's not taking that cut the way he used to."
"That swing of his isn't quick," said Greenwade. "He's not bringing the bat around like I know he can."
As for Mantle, he had only this to say about the future:
"I want to play myself out of this thing. I want to stay in the lineup."

Morrow-Norton Sprint Clash Tops Cal Relays

Modesto, Calif. (AP)—Olympic sprint champion Bobby Morrow, who already has lost once this year to fleet California Ray Norton, tests his foe again Saturday night over a faster track at the California Relays.

This shapes up as the biggest race in the career of the 20-year-old Norton, a junior at San Jose State College, who earlier this year joined the group of those sharing the world record 9.3 seconds in the 100-yard dash.

Morrow, the Texan from Abilene Christian College, raced Norton at the Los Angeles Coliseum Relays and lost by a foot in a slow 9.7 over a grass track.

8-UNDER 64 GIVES JACOBS GOLF LEAD

Detroit (AP) — Tommy Jacobs equalled the course record with an eight under par 64 Thursday and grabbed a two-stroke lead after the first round of the $25,000 Western Open Golf Tournament.

The 23-year-old from Whittier, Calif., went out in 31 strokes and back in 33 as he met the record, shared by four others, at the 6,765-yard layout at nearby Red Run Golf Club.

Jacobs, who has been on the circuit less than a year, missed three putts from distances of 10 feet or less but made up for them with a 30-foot birdie chip on the 41-yard, par four, No. 14 hole. He dropped other birdie putts of 12 and 17 feet as he repeated his first round performance in last week's Kansas City Open.

Par at the Red Run course is 36-72 and a field of 146 teed off in the 55th Western Open in which Doug Ford is defending champion.

Masters Champion Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., had a pair of 33s for a 66, two strokes off the pace. Muscular Frank Stranahan of Toledo and Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., were another stroke back at 67.

Palmer made tremendous chipping pay off. Three times he was in mild trouble and recovered with brilliant chip shots.

Four players tied at 68. They are Bruce Crampton, of Sidney, Australia, Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y.; Don Whitt of Alameda, Calif., and long-hitting George Bayer of San Gabriel, Calif.

Some fairly good economic news backgrounded the market but there was no overwhelming rush to buy.

Volume was 2,350,000 shares compared with 2,260,000 Wednesday.

The market flew in the face of its tradition of caution before a long weekend, in this case three days during which the French crisis may develop unpredictably.

Brokers said solid investment demand was a basic factor in the market's behavior, as reflected by American Telephone's reaching a new high in active dealings.

The rise was accomplished on a day when news was of better figures in the steel industry, but the three new claims for unemployment, an uptick in shipments of replacement tires and a hike in the cost of a big Russian producer.

Aircraft, rubbers, motors, steels, oils, copper and airlines were good performers. The leading rails were up on average.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 70 to $170.10, its highest level since Sept. 19, 1947, after the last 38 days of $160.90 at May 9.

The industrial rise $1.40 to make a new high for this component, the rails were up 60 cents and utilities were unchanged.

Thirteen of the 15 most active stocks advanced and two declined.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregularly higher. Volume was 780,000 shares compared with 600,000 Wednesday.
